LOCAL ADVISOR AWARDED DESIGNATION

(Plymouth Meeting, PA) Local financial advisor, John M. Sklencar has been awarded professional designation as a Registered Financial Consultant (RFC). This action was taken by the International Association of Registered Financial Consultants, a non-profit educational and professional organization established in 1984.

The coveted RFC designation is presented to financial advisors who meet seven criteria: Education, Examination, Experience, Ethics, Financial Licensure, Conduct and Continuing Professional Education. The mission of the international organization is: "Financial professionals dedicated to helping people do a better job of spending, saving, investing, insuring and planning."

A Registered Financial Consultant must maintain very high professional and ethical standards, plus certify the completion of a minimum of 40 hours of relevant continuing education each year. According to the organization's chairman, Edwin P. Morrow, RFC, "In a society and economy of rapid change it is essential that a financial advisor be engaged in a continuous quest for knowledge and skills in order to properly serve the public."

John M. Sklencar has been engaged in financial services since 1982 and is President and Founder the firm of Physicians Private Client Group and resides in Jamison, PA. Individuals interested in learning more about personal financial services may call 610.940.1733 and request a free information packet. It is also the firm's policy to offer a no-obligation interview to individuals wishing to consider using their professional services.
